MEMORANDUM-DECISION AND ORDER

Plaintiff Amado Brito commenced this civil rights action on November 7, 2002. See Dkt. No. 1. On October 13, 2005, the Court issued a scheduling Order, pursuant to which it scheduled the trial of this action to commence on February 13, 2006. See Dkt. No. 77. However, on that date, the Court advised counsel that Five Points Correctional Facility had informed the Court that it could not transport Plaintiff to Court for trial. At the Court's instruction, Plaintiff's pro bono counsel contacted Plaintiff and, thereafter, advised the Court that Plaintiff had agreed to comply with prison policies and procedures regarding the transportation of inmates. Counsel also advised the Court that Plaintiff had waived his right to be present for jury selection. After drawing the jury, the Court adjourned the trial until February 14, 2006. On that date, after meeting with counsel, the Court advised the jury that Plaintiff had experienced some problems with transportation; and, therefore, the Court was adjourning the trial without date to allow time for the transport issue to be resolved.<sup>1</sup>

Currently before the Court is Plaintiff's motion for a Certificate of Appealability.<sup>2</sup> See Dkt. No. 86.

Section 2253(c)(1) of Title 28 of the United States Code provides, in pertinent part, that [u]nless a circuit justice or judge issues a certificate of appealability, an appeal may not be taken to the court of appeals from –

(A) the final order in a habeas corpus proceeding in which the detention complained of arises out of process issued by a State court; or

(B) the final order in a proceedings under section 2255.

28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(1) (emphasis added).

By its terms, therefore, a party need only request a Certificate of Appealability in two types of cases: habeas corpus proceedings and proceedings under section 2255. See 28 U.S.C. § 2253(c)(1). In other words, because this is a civil rights complaint, Plaintiff does not need to request a Certificate of Appealability before he files an appeal.<sup>3</sup>

Accordingly, for the above-stated reason, the Court hereby

ORDERS that Plaintiff's motion for a Certificate of Appealability is DENIED as unnecessary; and the Court further

<sup>2</sup> On March 3, 2006, the Clerk of the Court received a letter from the Second Circuit Court of Appeals advising (1) that, on February 15, 2006, Plaintiff had mistakenly filed a document with the Second Circuit and (2) that, in accordance with Rule 4(d) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, this Court should consider that document filed as of February 15, 2006. See Dkt. No. 86. In this document, filed nunc pro tunc on February 15, 2006, Plaintiff states that he "need[s] a Certificate of Appealability." Id.

<sup>3</sup> However, the Court notes that, because this action is still pending, there is no final order or judgment from which Plaintiff could appeal.

ORDERS that the Clerk of the Court serve a copy of this Order on the parties.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
